

Dr Pepper Museum, Waco

Waco's 10,000-sq-ft Dr Pepper store carries visitors into the world of the soda business via a program of play called "Advertising and Marketing KidzDays." We promise visiting the facility sparks dreams of future careers and industries, and has educational benefits. Kids build grades through high school as well as get a real taste of entrepreneurship by coming up or designing with drink and brainstorming the idea. Full sessions ($10) run from 7 a.m. to early afternoon, so if time is an issue, sign up for the two-hour "Create a Soft Drink" experience ($5).
